ABOUT NATE

With 20+ years of worship leading experience, Nate Meyst is emerging as a formidable song-writer in the contemporary Christian music space. From leading worship in Southern California with Pastor Skip Heitzig and Pastor Levi Lusko to playing on-stage with Reuben Morgan, Hillsong United, and Hillsong Y&F, he is seasoned in worship team development, song-writing, and helping the church to connect with their creator.

He was a worship leader in Miami for 10 years (where he wrote and released an EP and two singles). He now resides in Boise, ID, leading worship with Pastor Brenen Beeler at Calvary Chapel Eagle. His heart is to lead worship for the church, resource it with fresh worship material, and help other worship leaders, which is what his YouTube channel is all about (2000+ subscribers). As Nate said, "If one person comes to know God or draws closer to Him through what I'm doing, mission accomplished."

ABOUT WORTHY OF MY WONDER

Nate's new single, "Worthy Of My Wonder," started as a simple prayer journal entry and ended as a song that walks through all the reasons we can find ourselves in wonder at all God has done, is doing, and will do. It's not complex in theme, difficult to understand, or lyrically cryptic. It's a simple, but necessary declaration. It's a song that is always applicable with each new morning. It points to the greatness of God. It strips our relationship with Him down to the basics. Our time is best spent at His feet, beholding Him with a child-like wonder. He is certainly worthy of it.
